FHFA Internship Recent Professional Graduate Opportunities 2025

Description

The Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA) is seeking motivated recent professional graduates to join our 2025 Internship Program. This opportunity is designed to provide hands-on experience in a dynamic regulatory environment focused on overseeing the nation's housing finance system. Interns will contribute to key projects and research initiatives within FHFA, gaining exposure to policy-making, financial analysis, and housing regulation. The program is ideal for graduates interested in developing a deep understanding of federal housing finance and the role of regulatory agencies in promoting housing stability.

Responsibilities

- Assist in conducting research and analysis related to housing finance, risk management, and regulatory frameworks.
- Support teams in policy development and regulatory assessments.
- Contribute to the preparation of reports, presentations, and policy recommendations.
- Participate in meetings and workgroups, collaborating with various teams to analyze housing data and trends.
- Engage with internal stakeholders to gather information and support ongoing projects.
- Help prepare materials for briefings, public communications, and regulatory filings.
- Provide general administrative and operational support as needed.

Qualifications

- Recent graduate (within the past 12 months) with a Bachelor's or Master's degree in Public Policy, Economics, Finance, Business, or a related field.
- U.S. citizenship or permanent resident status.
- Strong academic background with a passion for public service and policy development.
- Must be able to commit to a full-time internship for a duration of 10-12 weeks, starting in the summer of 2025.

Experience

- Previous internship, academic projects, or work experience in public policy, economics, finance, or related fields is preferred but not required.
- Familiarity with federal housing finance systems and regulatory processes is a plus.

Skills

- Strong analytical, problem-solving, and critical-thinking abilities.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint).
