

Government Legal Department Internship Schemes 2024 / 2025 Apply Now

Description

The Government Legal Department (GLD) Internship Scheme offers an exceptional opportunity for law students and graduates to gain valuable experience in public sector legal work. As an intern, you will support legal teams in handling high-profile legal cases and projects that shape the future of the UK government. This program provides a comprehensive insight into public sector law, offering hands-on experience and a chance to contribute to important government work.

Responsibilities

- Assist legal teams in researching and preparing legal documents, including case law analysis, opinions, and statutory interpretations.
- Support in the preparation of legal arguments and evidence for ongoing government cases.
- Participate in meetings, drafting briefs, and compiling reports for government departments.
- Conduct legal research on various areas of law, including administrative, constitutional, and commercial law.
- Observe hearings, tribunals, and other legal proceedings related to government cases.
- Provide administrative support to the legal teams, including maintaining legal files, organizing documentation, and ensuring compliance with legal procedures.
- Contribute to team discussions, offering insights based on research and analysis of current legal matters.
- Assist in preparing policy briefs, legal advice, and other communications for government stakeholders.
- Undertake any other duties as assigned by legal supervisors or mentors.

Qualifications

- Currently studying or recently graduated with a law degree (LLB or equivalent).
- Strong academic background in law with an interest in public law, administrative law, or government legal affairs.
- Candidates with additional qualifications such as LPC, BPTC, or LLM are advantageous but not essential.

Experience

- Prior experience in legal research or administrative roles is preferred but not required.
- Experience in public law, human rights, constitutional law, or regulatory law would be beneficial.
- Voluntary or work experience in a legal setting, such as a law firm, NGO, or government agency, is an asset.
