Hamleys Internship Graduate Students 2025 New Hiring

Description

Hamleys, the world's finest toy shop, is offering an exciting opportunity for graduate students in 2025 to join our dynamic team through our internship program. The internship is designed to provide an enriching experience in various aspects of retail, marketing, operations, and customer service. Interns will gain valuable insights into the toy industry and develop hands-on experience in a globally recognized brand, helping to foster their personal and professional growth.

Responsibilities

As a Hamleys Intern, you will be involved in a wide range of tasks across different departments. Key responsibilities include:

- Assisting with the execution of marketing campaigns and in-store promotions.
- Supporting the sales team in driving customer engagement and delivering exceptional service.
- Analyzing customer feedback and providing insights to improve the customer experience.
- Contributing to inventory management and stock control processes.
- Participating in the planning and execution of store events and product launches.
- Collaborating with cross-functional teams on various retail and business projects.
- Assisting in administrative duties such as data collection, reporting, and preparing presentations.
- Shadowing senior staff and learning about various roles within the business, including management and operations.

Qualifications

- Current student or recent graduate (graduating in 2025) in Business, Marketing, Retail Management, or a related field.
- A keen interest in the retail industry, particularly in the toys and entertainment sector.
- Strong academic performance and motivation to learn and grow professionally

Experience

- Previous internships or work experience in retail, marketing, or customer service is a plus but not required.
- Passion for toys, games, and entertainment is highly desirable.
- Any volunteer work or extracurricular involvement demonstrating leadership, teamwork, and communication skills will be an asset.
