Houston Airport Internship Business Opportunities Applying 2025 In US

Description

The Houston Airport Internship Program offers business-focused internship opportunities for students and recent graduates to gain hands-on experience in airport operations, management, marketing, and customer service. Interns will work closely with professionals at Houston's George Bush Intercontinental Airport (IAH) and William P. Hobby Airport (HOU) to enhance their skills, contribute to operational efficiency, and build their career in the aviation industry. This internship provides an excellent opportunity to understand the complexities of airport business operations and gain exposure to diverse roles within the airport environment.

Responsibilities

- Assist with airport management functions, including customer service, operations, and logistics.
- Support marketing and communication teams in creating promotional content and social media campaigns.
- Work alongside departments like finance, planning, and sustainability on various strategic projects.
- Collaborate with airport stakeholders, vendors, and contractors to support day-to-day operations.
- Assist with the analysis of performance metrics, customer satisfaction surveys, and market research.
- Participate in meetings, brainstorming sessions, and project teams to help develop new business initiatives.
- Conduct research and provide insights into industry trends, market analysis, and competitive benchmarking.
- Assist in airport event planning and coordination for business development programs and community outreach.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in or a recent graduate of a degree program in Business Administration, Aviation Management, Marketing, Finance, Public Relations, or related field.
- Must be available for a full-time internship for a minimum of 12 weeks.
- Strong interest in aviation, airport management, or business operations.

Experience

- Previous internship or coursework related to business operations, marketing, or aviation is a plus but not required.
- Familiarity with airport operations, travel industry trends, or customer service is an advantage.
- Demonstrated ability to work in a fast-paced environment and handle multiple tasks efficiently.
