MidFirst Bank Internship Professional Program 2025

Description

The MidFirst Bank Internship Professional Program 2025 provides talented undergraduate and graduate students with an exceptional opportunity to gain hands-on experience in the financial services industry. This program offers participants exposure to various areas of banking, including retail banking, wealth management, commercial banking, risk management, and operations. Interns will work closely with professionals across the bank, develop essential skills, and gain insight into the banking industry, setting the stage for future career opportunities at MidFirst Bank.

Responsibilities

- Assist in various bank departments, including retail banking, commercial banking, lending, wealth management, or risk management, depending on the assigned business area.
- Conduct financial analysis, market research, and data interpretation to support business decisions.
- Help prepare reports, presentations, and other business-related documents for management and internal stakeholders.
- Participate in team meetings, brainstorming sessions, and collaborative projects across different departments.
- Assist with customer service tasks, including supporting branch staff with daily operations and ensuring a positive customer experience.
- Support the development and execution of marketing strategies for banking products and services.
- Collaborate with colleagues on process improvement initiatives and operational efficiency.
- Shadow senior professionals and attend networking events to learn about different career paths within banking.
- Provide administrative support to various teams, ensuring the smooth operation of projects and daily activities.

Qualifications

- U.S. citizen or legal permanent resident.
- Currently enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate student at an accredited college or university.
- Strong academic performance with a focus on finance, business administration, economics, accounting, or a related field.
- Available for full-time internship during the summer (typically May through August).

Experience

- Previous internship or volunteer experience in banking, finance, or customer service is preferred but not required.
- Familiarity with basic financial principles and practices is a plus.
