Obama Foundation Internship Program And Scholarship 2025

Description

The Obama Foundation Internship Program and Scholarship provides motivated students and recent graduates with the opportunity to support the Foundation's mission of inspiring, empowering, and connecting people to change their world. Interns will engage in meaningful projects across departments, including communications, operations, development, and digital strategy, gaining valuable experience in nonprofit and social change work. Additionally, selected students may receive scholarship support to further their education in alignment with the Foundation's commitment to community leadership and public service.

Responsibilities

- Assist in developing, organizing, and implementing projects that support the Obama Foundation's mission.
- Conduct research, data analysis, and reporting to inform and advance program initiatives.
- Create, edit, and proofread content for internal and external communication.
- Participate in team meetings, workshops, and training sessions that foster professional growth and leadership development.
- Provide administrative and logistical support for Foundation events and programs.
- Engage with Foundation staff and other interns in collaborative projects.
- Represent the Obama Foundation's values and mission through all interactions and contributions.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate program, or a recent graduate (within one year) from an accredited college or university.
- Demonstrated commitment to community service, public policy, social impact, or related fields.
- Authorized to work in the United States.
- Applicants for the scholarship program must have plans to continue their studies in an academic program relevant to social change, policy, or community leadership.

Experience

- Prior volunteer or internship experience in nonprofit organizations, government, public service, or community-based work is beneficial.
- Experience with research, data collection, or event planning is advantageous.
- Familiarity with social media and digital communications is a plus.

Skills

- Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
