- Conducting research and analysis to provide insights for decision-making.
- Engaging with internal departments and external stakeholders to promote the RNLI's values and initiatives.
- Preparing reports, presentations, and materials for team use.
- Participating in workshops and training sessions to gain deeper insight into the RNLI's work.
- Collaborating with team members to foster innovation and efficiency.

Qualifications

- Current enrollment in or recent completion of a university degree (any discipline).
- A genuine interest in the RNLI's mission and community impact.

Experience

- Previous experience in voluntary, academic, or professional settings is desirable.
- Familiarity with teamwork, project coordination, or event planning is advantageous but not essential.

Skills

The ideal candidate will possess the following skills:

- Strong verbal and written communication abilities.
- Effective organizational and time management skills.
- Creative problem-solving and adaptability in a fast-paced environment.
- Capability to work both independently and within a team.
- Competence in using standard IT tools, including Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, and PowerPoint).
- Analytical thinking with attention to detail.
