RSPCA Internship Latest Program Undergraduate 2025

Description

Join the RSPCA's Undergraduate Apprenticeship Program and gain hands-on experience in animal welfare, conservation, and operations. This program offers students the opportunity to develop skills in various areas of the charity's work, contribute to meaningful projects, and support the welfare of animals in need. As an apprentice, you will be part of a team dedicated to improving the lives of animals across the UK while learning directly from experienced professionals in a supportive environment.

Responsibilities

As an RSPCA apprentice, your key responsibilities will include:

- Assisting in the care, welfare, and rehabilitation of animals at RSPCA centres.
- Supporting the team in the delivery of animal rescue and welfare activities.
- Engaging with the public, providing education on responsible pet ownership and animal welfare.
- Contributing to administrative tasks, including case documentation, data entry, and reporting.
- Participating in fundraising and outreach activities to raise awareness for animal welfare issues.
- Working with the communications team to help raise awareness through digital and print materials.
- Supporting the RSPCA's community engagement and educational initiatives.

Qualifications

To be eligible for the program, you must:

- Be currently enrolled in an undergraduate degree program or equivalent qualification in a related field such as Animal Science, Veterinary Studies, Environmental Science, or Social Sciences.
- Have a keen interest in animal welfare and a desire to make a positive impact.

Experience

- Previous experience working with animals (e.g., volunteering at animal shelters, veterinary clinics, or farms) is desirable but not essential.
- Prior exposure to community outreach, customer service, or administrative work would be beneficial.
- A passion for animal care and an understanding of animal welfare principles.

Skills

- Strong communication skills, both verbal and written, with the ability to
