Surrey Police Internship Graduate Current Vacancies 2025 In UK

Description

Surrey Police is offering a dynamic and exciting opportunity for recent graduates to join their Internship Graduate Apprenticeship program for 2025. This program is designed to provide comprehensive, hands-on experience within the police force, enabling you to develop valuable skills and knowledge in various aspects of law enforcement. As part of our ongoing commitment to developing future talent, this apprenticeship will provide practical exposure to police operations, leadership development, and community engagement, with a focus on delivering public safety and justice across Surrey.

Responsibilities

As an intern graduate apprentice at Surrey Police, you will be expected to:

- Assist with day-to-day policing activities, including supporting officers in community engagement and crime prevention initiatives.
- Contribute to investigations and case management by gathering evidence, preparing reports, and conducting research.
- Work closely with police teams on operational matters, offering administrative and logistical support.
- Participate in meetings and training sessions, contributing your fresh perspective and ideas to improve policing services.
- Support the analysis and interpretation of crime data, producing reports and assisting in strategic planning.
- Collaborate with external agencies, such as local authorities and partner organizations, to enhance community safety initiatives.
- Develop leadership and professional skills through mentoring and job shadowing from senior police officers and managers.
- Adhere to all police policies and procedures, including confidentiality and ethical standards.

Qualifications

- A minimum of a Bachelor's degree (2:2 or higher) in any discipline, or equivalent qualification.
- Applicants must have the right to work in the UK.
- A passion for community safety, public service, and an interest in law enforcement.

Experience

- Previous experience in any form of public service, volunteering, or community-based activities is desirable but not essential.
- Any prior work experience demonstrating leadership, teamwork, or problem-solving skills would be beneficial.
