The British Library Internship Experience 2025 Current Vacancies

Description

The British Library Internship Experience is designed for individuals seeking a comprehensive introduction to the library and information sector. Through hands-on work and professional development opportunities, the internship will allow participants to gain valuable experience, develop skills, and enhance their career prospects within the cultural and heritage sector. Interns will be placed within different departments across the Library, contributing to key projects and assisting with the daily operations that support the Library's mission to preserve, share, and promote knowledge.

Responsibilities

- Assist with Library Operations: Support a variety of functions including collection management, preservation, digitisation, and library services.
- Project Support: Collaborate with teams on specific projects, helping with research, data analysis, cataloguing, and digital archiving.
- Customer Service: Engage with library users and visitors, providing information, assisting with enquiries, and supporting outreach initiatives.
- Administrative Support: Help with general office tasks, including filing, document management, and correspondence.
- Professional Development: Participate in training sessions, workshops, and mentoring opportunities designed to build skills in library management, digital preservation, and curation.
- Networking Opportunities: Attend events, lectures, and presentations to connect with professionals in the field of libraries, archives, and information management.

Qualifications

- Essential:
  - Current students, recent graduates, or individuals looking to transition into the library or heritage sector.
  - A passion for libraries, archives, and/or information management.
- Desirable:
  - Studying or holding a qualification in Library Science, Archival Studies, Information Management, History, or a related field.

Experience

- Essential:
  - No formal experience is required, though a strong interest in libraries, archives, and heritage sectors is important.
  - Some exposure to customer service or volunteer work would be an advantage.
- Desirable:
  - Experience in administrative or research-based roles, volunteering, or working within cultural or educational settings.
