

Wakefield Council Internship Students Training Opportunities 2025

Description

Wakefield Council is offering exciting Internship and Apprenticeship opportunities for students in 2025, designed to provide valuable work experience and professional development within local government services. This programme is perfect for those seeking to make a difference in their community while gaining practical skills and insight into the workings of a public sector organisation. Interns and apprentices will support various council departments, contributing to impactful projects that enhance the quality of life for residents in Wakefield.

Responsibilities

- Work closely with council teams across various departments, assisting in the delivery of key public services and initiatives.
- Support the research, planning, and development of new projects and services for local communities.
- Assist with the preparation of reports, presentations, and other documents for both internal and external stakeholders.
- Participate in meetings and take notes, offering ideas and suggestions to improve services or processes.
- Provide general administrative support, including managing calendars, scheduling meetings, and responding to queries.
- Engage in training and development opportunities, including workshops, seminars, and team activities.
- Assist in the collection, analysis, and reporting of data to support decision-making and policy development.
- Contribute to the creation of communications materials, such as newsletters, social media posts, and flyers, to inform the public about council services.
- Ensure all tasks are carried out in accordance with Wakefield Council's policies, particularly in relation to confidentiality, health and safety, and data protection.

Qualifications

- Applicants should be currently enrolled in or have recently completed a relevant educational programme (e.g., A-levels, degree, or vocational qualification).
- Specific qualifications may vary depending on the department or area of interest, but a strong academic background in a relevant field is preferred.
- For apprenticeship roles, applicants should have a minimum of GCSEs (or equivalent) in English and Maths.

Experience

- No formal work experience is required, although candidates with any prior experience in customer service, office administration, or volunteering in a public service setting will be at an advantage.
